Dear Customer,

November 2020

A huge thanks to all the local folk who made this Halloween season a huge success. Your business means we can continue to provide the specialist store experience we have been providing for over 17 years.

Lost in a masquerade...

Historically masquerade masks were worn delicately by the prosperous class at balls.

Masquerade masks had many uses including hiding one's identity, and using different colour to express one's freedom of speech and voice one's emotions and opinions without judgement.
